HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND MANY YEARS:

Janet Miralles by Michelle & Jody

On Christ's Wonderful Promise

‘To him that overcometh, to him will I give to sit with Me on My throne’ (Rev. 3:21). This, my brethren, is Christ’s promise – the promise of Him who is the Conqueror of the devil, sin and death.

The devil and sin and death are stronger than man – who is able to overcome them? No one save Christ, and those who cleave firmly to Christ and go into battle with His weapons. The devil is as old as the world, and even older. How can man, whose time is measured in a span, conquer him who has waged war against men for many thousands of years? How can one mortal creature overcome all diabolical temptations, whose number amounts to the sum of all evils on earth? In no way, unless he knows that the Lord Jesus overcame the three greatest forms of diabolical temptation on the high mountain. And in no way, also, unless he cleaves firmly to Christ, to Him who is older than time and more powerful than all the angels, whether evil or good.

Sin is as old as the devil. How can man, whose time is measured in a span, flee sin, which, as an infectious illness and a foul stench, passes down from generation to generation, from man to man, from the time that man first came into being on such a world as this? In no way, unless he knows that there is one Man, one and one only, who has not sinned either in His birth or after His birth – the God-Man Jesus Christ, who, in the humility of His humanity and the fire of His divinity, destroyed death on the Cross. And in no way, unless he cleaves firmly to Christ, who is older than sin and more powerful than all the sowers and carriers of sin.

Death is as old as man, man driven out of Paradise. How can man, whose time is measured in a span, overcome death in this charnel-house, the world? In no way, unless he acknowledges the power of the Cross and the Passion of Christ, and the truth of His Resurrection from the tomb. In no way, also, unless he cleaves firmly to Christ, the all-powerful Conqueror of death.

Oh, what a glorious reward for those who overcome! They will sit, crowned with wreaths of glory, on the throne of the greatest Victor in heaven and earth! To Him be glory and praise for ever. Amen
