Announcements:

The Parish Festival Committee gratefully acknowledges everyone's assistance and generosity with this year's Festival. Whether you came to pinch Perohi, roll dough or shred cabbage, we are grateful for your time and effort. If you came to help set up, clean up or offer advice, please know how much you are appreciated. If you were not able to help in any way but through your prayers – it may have just been those very prayers that God heard and made it such a success.

Again, thanks for all your love and support for our beloved parish!

Thanks goes out also to the members of the Junior Tamburitzans and our beloved "in-house" musician, Sarah Mica, for their beautiful and captivating musical renditions of our beloved folk music. The good food, lively music and fellowship kept the rain and otherwise dreary day at bay!

The committee has scheduled a pre-advent Perohi making session for Saturday, October 22. If you're able to help we would enjoy your Christian fellowship! The Perohi will be available for purchase at coffee hour on the 23rd.
