Feast Day of Our Holy Father Daniel the Stylite – December 11th

Father Daniel was born in the village of Maroutha, near the city of Samosata in Mesopotamia, of Christian parents, Elias and Martha. He was a gift of God through the tearful prayers of his mother, who was barren, and who dedicated him to God in his youth. He embraced the monastic state at the age of twelve and visited Simeon Stylites who gave his blessing. Desirous of solitude, Daniel left his monastery and withdrew to an abandoned pagan temple on the shore of the Black Sea. He endured many assaults from demons, but overcame them all by prayer, endurance and the sign of the Cross. After that, he climbed up onto a pillar, where he remained till his death, enduring with equanimity both heat and cold, and attacks from both men and demons.

Many disciples gathered around his pillar, and Daniel led them towards eternal life by his example and his words. God rewarded His devoted servant with great grace in this life, and he worked many miracles of help to men, and foretold future events. People came to his pillar from all parts, seeking help and advice from the saint of God. Kings and patriarchs came to him, as well as simple folk. The Emperor Leo the Great used to bring his foreign guests, princes and nobles, and show them Daniel on his pillar: 'Here is the wonder of my empire!'

Daniel foretold the day of his own death, taught his disciples as a father would his children, and took leave of them. At the time of his death, his disciples saw angels, prophets, apostles and martyrs around the pillar. Having lived in asceticism for eighty years, this angelic man entered into rest, and into the Kingdom of Christ in 489.
