Did you ever wonder what to do with those little left over skeins of yarn once you've completed a knitting or crocheting project? Don't drop a stitch by letting those small skeins of yarn clutter up your yarn basket. Bring them to Church to help with the creation of Rainbow Afghans! These afghans have been lovingly made by Julia Urdenis for years. These colorful afghans cover beds at the Washington Women's Shelter and provide comfort to children who are in the foster care system awaiting adoption by a loving family. Why not help out with this worthwhile project by donating your scraps? Create a band of hope in a rainbow afghan to help a victim of domestic violence gain the courage to make a new start or help a foster child have an afghan to call his own! Please drop off your yarn donations in the basket in the vestibule.

Book sale now going on!! The books will be sold for 50 cents an inch and will be available every Sunday during coffee hour. The proceeds will be given to the Blackburn Center for abused women in Greensburg.

The Shelby D. Ferguson Funeral Home sponsored this week's bulletin.
